

Look to the future!

Celebrating 13 years of dedication and service to canine epilepsy research and education. We have succeeded in raising awareness of canine epilepsy and supporting the research through grant sponsorship. Currently we co-sponsor five canine epilepsy grants and two other grants that are just finishing up. This level of interest in canine epilepsy research is unprecedented. Please see our research updates page at www.tobysfoundation.org/research_updates.htm.

Thank you for your support. We cannot do this without you! We hope that you will continue to help us, because Toby's Foundation is one of the best ways you can fight canine epilepsy.
